Preliminary voting is open on 26 October at 9:00 – 20:00, on 27 October at 9:00 – 20:00 and on 28 October at 9:00 – 20:00. You can find the voting system at www.trey.fi.

Eligibility for election

All members of the Student Union who have registered as present are eligible for election, including post-graduate students who have paid the membership fee. Everyone who is eligible to vote is also eligible for election unless the student union rules state otherwise.

Eligibility to vote

All members of the Student Union who have registered as present are eligible to vote, including post-graduate students who have paid the membership fee. In order to be eligible to vote, one must have registered as present 21 days before the election at the latest. Eligibility to vote will be determined based on an electoral register compiled by the University.

Electoral documents

The electoral documents confirmed by the Central Election Committee will be available at www.trey.fi/edustajistovaalit from Monday 15 August 2020 at 9:00 onwards. The documents will also be available at TREY service offices on the Centre and Hervanta campuses during their opening hours.

The Candidacy Announcement must be submitted electronically using the e-form confirmed by the Central Election Committee. The form is available at www.trey.fi/edustajistovaalit. Log into the e-form using your basic user account.

The candidates and electoral alliances must submit the Candidacy Announcements, the Agreements to form an electoral alliance and the Electoral circle charters to the Central Election Committee on Friday 28 September 2022 at 16:00 at the latest either by saving the e-forms or by delivering the signed electoral documents to the Centre or Hervanta TREY service offices on paper. Additionally, each electoral alliance must appoint two representatives for every ten of their candidates, including incomplete tens, to serve as Technical Assistants in the election. A form for appointing the assistants is available at www.trey.fi/edustajistovaalit.

The Central Election Committee will process the documents on 29 September 2022. The documents will not be public until they have been processed by the Central Election Committee.

In addition to signatures, writing names in block letters is required. If a name is impossible to read, the document will be rejected. Electoral documents must also include the names and identifiers of electoral alliances or nonpartisan candidates. The names and identifiers cannot be commercial, insulting to anyone's personal rights or otherwise inappropriate. If a name or identifier does not comply with the above regulations, the Central Election Committee may reject the name or identifier without consulting the candidates in question. The documents are only valid when signed by an Electoral Spokesperson.

Election advertising

Election advertising inside campus buildings is allowed from Wednesday 12 October onwards. Election advertisements may be put up in spaces the Central Election Committee has assigned for them. The Central Election Committee offers the candidates the opportunity to advertise on the TREY election site. Election advertisements must be removed by Sunday 6 November.

More detailed regulations on election advertising are available at www.trey.fi/edustajistovaalit, at the TREY service offices on the Centre and Hervanta campuses and, beginning on 12 October at 9:00, at the advertising spaces appointed by the Central Election Committee.
